INTERNAL COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE

Brief report on the Meeting

A Seminar is arranged on 04-02-2021. The meeting was chaired by the principal Dr.B.S.Santha Kumari and Sri G. Satyanarayana Raju Secretary & Correspondent of the college management association was the distinguished guest. Smt. Chrysolyte, President, Red Rope voluntary organization was the chief guest.

The principal felt that women trafficking remain a dark stain on humanity, violating the rights and dignity of countless women worldwide. The esteemed chief guest Chrysolyte commenced the address by acknowledging the grim reality of women trafficking; emphasizing its multifaceted nature and the profound impact it has on individuals, families, and societies. Chrysolyte highlighted the root causes behind women trafficking, including poverty, gender inequality, and lack of education, armed conflict, and organized crime. She stressed the need for comprehensive strategies addressing these underlying factors to effectively tackle the issue.

Chief Guest Chrysolyte address served as a rallying cry for action against women trafficking, inspiring hope and galvanizing commitment to combat this heinous crime. Her insightful remarks underscored the urgent need for collective action and solidarity in the fight for gender equality and human rights. As we reflect on her words, let us recommit ourselves to the cause, working tirelessly to eradicate women trafficking and build a more just and equitable world for all.
