ORDER:

In pursuance of the Correspondence cited, the Vice – Chancellor is pleased to order that according to the affiliated colleges reference manual and conditions therein be followed by college as detailed below.

Autonomous College means a college on which status of autonomy has been conferred by the university. The Executive council shall have power to confer in consultation with the Academic Senate. However, the university can confer autonomous status on an affiliated college if it is enlisted under section 2(F) & 12(B) of the UGC Act. The autonomous status may be granted by the university for a period of 5 years in the first instance and review shall be undertaken by the university after 3 years as to the performance/functioning of the college with the help of a committee as indicated in the UGC Guidelines. The Autonomous College enjoys limited academic freedom. The University continues to exercise its general power of supervision from time to time, as the university has to confer degrees on the students from the autonomous colleges. Since the autonomous colleges are affiliated colleges they should also follow the general pattern of the university in framing the syllabi, course content etc. Further as per the university code volume every affiliated college, other than a government college, shall be managed by a regularly constituted governing body. The governing body should observe all provisions of the Act, the statutes, the ordinance and regulations of the university and shall be made applicable to the college. When a college is desirous of offering a new combination of subject/admitting more students in a particular subject/combination/opening of additional sections, prior sanction of the university is essential.

The Vice – Chancellor has further ordered that in addition to the above the following guidelines be strictly followed as detailed below.

- i. Autonomous Colleges have to obtain prior permission to start new courses, sanction of extra seats, constitution of Board of Studies for each subject, pattern of examination, paper setters, scheme of valuation etc., every aspect in this regard should be on par with other affiliated colleges. The other existing conditions are same as that of other affiliated colleges.
- ii. Autonomous Colleges have to obtain necessary affiliation orders and No Dues Certificate for every academic year from the university against the submission of the list of admitted students, list of the faculty members with qualification and experience.

- iii. Autonomous colleges have to pay all fees to the university on par with other affiliated colleges of the university.

In accordance with orders issued by the UGC, New Delhi 1st cited under reference Dantuluri Narayanan Raju College (A), Bhimavaram, W. G. Dist, be permitted to Autonomous Status (Renewal) for a period 2016 to 2017 to 2021 to 2022 including ex – post – facto approval from the period 2013-14 to 2015-2016 w.e.f. academic year 2016-17, subject to conditions and guidelines stipulated thereof by the UGC, New Delhi, Govt. of AP and University be fulfilled by the college from time to time.

(BY ORDER)
